

A Little Girl With Small Eyes

Zilvia Iskandar

A little girl is looking at herself in front of a mirror

She starts to ask

Why my eyes are so small

Why they are different from the others at school

Then she continues to ask

Why my skin is white while the others are black

Why I'm different from the others

After spending a little time

She figures out that she also has some similarities to the other She goes deep inside her eyes

And compares them with the other eyes

Then she understands that inside those eyes They have the same rights

They have the right to live in the way they want to live See the differences with bigger hearts not bigger eyes.
